School administrators study the attendance behavior of 316 high school juniors at two schools. Predictors of the number of days of absence include gender of the student and standardized test scores in math and language arts.

Description of the Variables daysabs: Number of days absent from school math: Standardized test score for Math langarts: Standardized test score Language Arts male: Binary indicator of student gender