Shedding Light on Resources & Services in StarBRITE

StarBRITE:
1. Internet access https://www.mc.vanderbilt.edu/starbrite/
2. Click on link on VUMC homepage under For Employees
3. Type in your Username (VUNet ID) and Password

My Research:
A. Allows you to view IRB/CRC approved studies (PI, Contact, KSP).
B. Displays contracts info for studies (PI, Dept. Contact, Dept. Asst.)
C. Lists REDcap databases you have permission to access

Research Planning and Implementation
- Just Getting Started: Things to consider in research planning & preparation (includes tools for feasibility assessment)
- Ready to start approvals? Get a Customized Action Plan (CAP): Guides you through Vanderbilt’s Clinical Research Approvals Process

Participant Recruitment
- Clinical Trials Registry: Contains a list of actively enrolling clinical studies; PI / IRB Contact Person can view/edit studies
- Volunteer Registry: Subjects interested in participating in research register to be contacted

Funding Support
- Vouchers <$2,000
- REDCap Survey

Data Management
- VICTR Resource Request
- Resources to Help Obtain Funding

Educational Resources
- Clin.Research Education Schedule
- Clinical & Translational Scientist Development
- RSS Bookshelf
- Boot Camp
- Responsible Conduct of Research Education
- Research-related Educational Opportunities
- Customized Education Sessions

Synthetic Derivative
- Synthetic Derivative: Includes information extracted from the EMR and transformed into a research-ready, searchable database of de-identified clinical data.

---

Questions about StarBRITE?
- Call the RSS Hotline @ 322-7343 or use any of the Ask-the-Expert boxes in StarBRITE!

---

4/22/2009